National News—1965

1 A Wave for Friends—Cuban refugees waved to Cuban exiles on shore as their coast guard cutter approached Key West last fall. Such emotional scenes occurred frequently after Castro announced his "open door" policy, allowing certain groups of Cubans to leave his dictatorship.

2 Pioneer in Space—Astronaut Edward White stepped from his Gemini IV space capsule and into the void of space last June. Maj. James McDivitt, his companion on a 3½-day orbital flight, had to coax White back into the capsule after he had traveled 20 minutes suspended from Gemini IV. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad were the next space twins to orbit the earth. They completed their 8-day flight in Gemini V during August.

3 Medicare Bill Signed—President Johnson signed the Medicare Bill into law July 30 with former President Truman at his side. Witnessing the event that had far-reaching effects on Social Security benefits for the elderly were (left to right) Lady Bird Johnson, Vice President Humphrey and Bess Truman. The ceremony was held in Truman Library in Independence, Mo.

4 Temporary Mood—Dodgers Manager Walter Alston's mood of dejection after the Minnesota Twins won the sixth World Series game did not last long. The Dodgers emerged victorious in the 7th game and captured the pennant.

5 Double Space Spectacular—Astronauts Wally Schirra and Tom Stafford got this view of the Gemini 7 spaceship December 15 while traveling in their Gemini 6 craft for their historic rendezvous adventure. Schirra and Stafford rode their red-hot craft back to earth the following day, but Gemini 7 completed a 14-day mission before its re-entry. Making the longest and most significant voyage in space in Gemini 7 were Frank Borman and James Lovell, Jr.

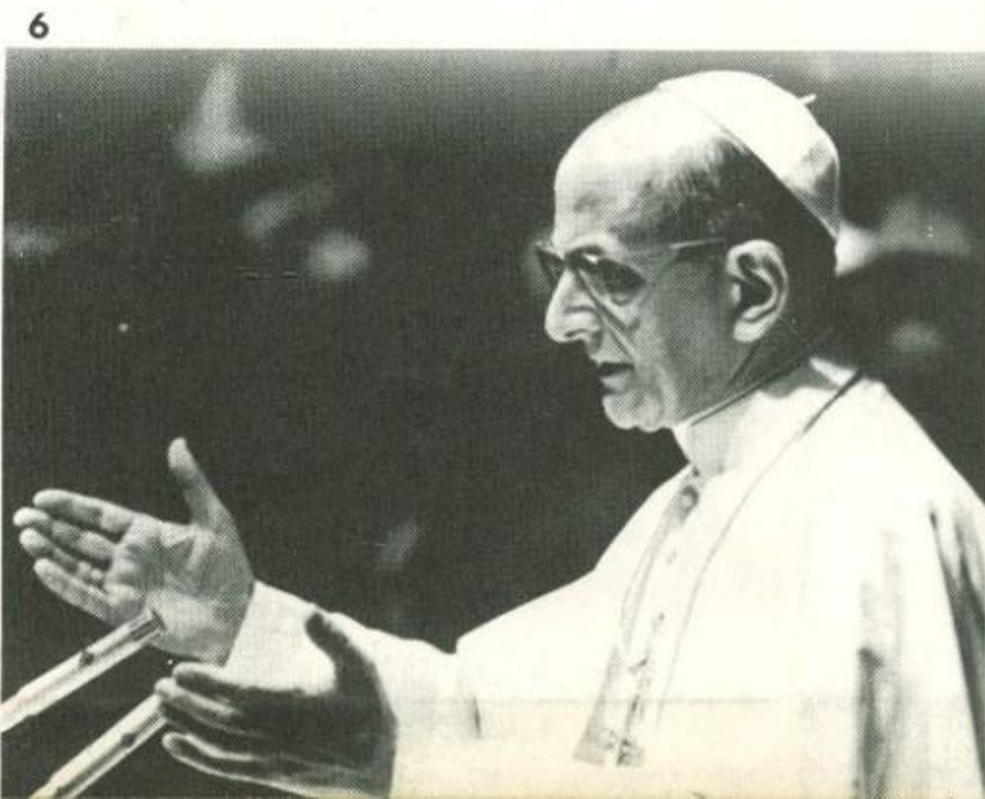

6 Plea for Peace—Pope Paul VI stood before the United Nations General Assembly in New York on October 4 to deliver his plea for world peace. His unprecedented, one-day visit in the U.S. was the culmination of plans by men of all faiths.

7 After Surgery—President Johnson was photographed in a reclining chair at Bethesda Naval Hospital the day after his gall bladder operation on October 8. He conducted the work of his office from his hospital room and his Texas ranch during his recuperation.

8 Proud Student—Charles Craig, 19-year-old freshman at Iowa university, demonstrated his criticism of draft-card burning incidents by displaying his draft card on his jacket with the note: "I'm a draft card carrying American and proud of it." Our role in the Vietnamese war sparked the incidents.

9 Blackout—The glittering metropolis of New York City was thrust into darkness on November 9 by a massive power failure affecting hundreds of miles along the eastern seaboard. City residents and commuters were stranded in offices, railroad and subway stations for hours before service was restored. The crippling condition was caused by a faulty relay at a Canadian generating station near Niagara Falls.

10 New Ambassador—Arthur Goldberg was named U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations by the President after the death of Ambassador Adlai Stevenson on July 14 in London. Goldberg was secretary of labor under President Kennedy and a U.S. Supreme Court Justice when named to the U.N. post.

11 Startling Fashions—Bold and contrasting blocks of color were the youthful fashion note of 1965. The eye-catching designs even extended the length of campus stockings worn with the costumes.

12 Royalty on Tour—Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, arrived in New York on November 4 for a whirlwind tour of the U.S. During their visit, they took time out for fun-filled activities such as a ride on a cable car in Frisco and gala parties in Hollywood and the nation's capital.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Readers,

Have just jetted in from the Go-Go Capital of the World--Highland, Wisconsin. This swinging metropolis is of such popular interest that my column today will consist of incidents that took place on a recent visit to my old home town.

Highland certainly has changed considerably since my graduation fifteen years ago, and the town's new face was the cause of much confusion and unfamiliarity with the various streets and shops. Why, as I walked down its main avenue expecting to renew old memories in what used to be Highland's only dry goods store, I was overwhelmed by the sight of a great department store that completely eclipsed the former lot. Intrigued with its window display of the latest "in-fashions", I was lured inside to shop for souvenirs. I was oblivious to my surroundings while standing in line at the check-out counter but somewhat sensed that I was being watched. Turning to reassure myself, I caught a pair of familiar eyes which after some thought I recognized as those of my neighbor and classmate, John Pierick. It was obvious that he, as a descendent of a long line of proprietors was also shining in the success of his business. I learned from him that actually much of his good fortune could be attributed to the mathematical genius of his manager, John Washa. I remarked as to the grandeur of the building and inquired about the designers. To my amazement John explained that it was Highland's own Rose Firm of Architects & Construction. It was shocking the way Larry had risen from carpenter's apprentice to a name synonymous with Frank L. Wright. While discussing Larry's various triumphs a curious note as to the outcome of his old highschool buddies bordered my thoughts. John very proudly issued forth the information that Dingle Bosch had just stashed away his second million with the rise in Standard Oil stock. It was obvious Dingle wasn't content to hide his light under an oil can in the station. As for John Conroy and Ron Richgels, they had tripped along a somewhat wayward path to good fortune. Both are now co-owners of a gambling-burlesque center. While Ron authorizes the gaming devices, John charms the women with his dazzling personality.

It was fun reminiscing but the clock said almost noon, so I left to find a restaurant for lunch. As I approached a quaint little cafe, I seemed familiar with the name "Chat 'n Chew" and suddenly realized that Jean Higgins must have taken over as chief chef. As soon as I sat down at a table I recognized one of the waitresses as Mary J. Roddel. She must have put on 30 lbs. as a result of munching on the left-overs. It was her lunch period so I invited her to have a bite with me. I was anxious to learn more of my old classmates and it seemed she had plenty to tell. She informed me that Wayne K. and Margie H. are married and living out at Big Rock. They have pooled all their finances into a legal beer pavilion for the Highland High moonlighters at Big Rock. Billy K. had risen to the job of honorable mayor with Ramon Blabaum as his sheriff. It is said that the town's prosperity is due to their ingenious service. Delbert Kreul and Bob Kotte are the town's most valuable fire chiefs. With their vigorous alertness, they have broken all records by getting the trucks out of the station and on their way within a mere 25 minutes. Terry Y. has won the love all the squirrels in the forest, for when he's not stamping out fires he helps them gather nuts. The amiable and sunny personalities of Joanne H. and Theresa H. have proven them perfect for the job as owners of "Haven for Angels" orphanage at Highland. Mary asked me if I remembered Caroline W. She changed her name to Cara and is now the popular author of the "Dear Cara" advice to the lovelorn column. I was utterly surprised to hear that Tom S. had turned the home brewery into a thriving industry. He hired Chuck K. to grow the hops and as chief taster, but found that he's losing money with Chuck drinking up the profits. Pat K. has realized his ambition to meet the cream of society through his thriving jiggiolo business. Keith G. and Gary Kopps are working on their doctorate at H.S.U. Keith is co-author along with Ralph R. of a book "The Latest in Punctuation." Ralph always vowed he'd prove to Mr. Bruess he was capable of placing the dots in the right spots. Manny McG. and Dennis O. have been on all the basketball courts of the world and now are in semi-retirement as maintenance men at the Y.M.C.A. Evelyn and Georgia have struck it rich at Oscar Mayer as stuffers because they stuff faster than any others--but, the real reason is that the President, Larry P. plays favorites.

Mary reported that there are still some prosperous farmers around the booming metropolis. Mary Ann B. was elected "Miss Whipped Cream" of 1970, so to avoid rumors of political pull, she married a farmer, but still gives cheerleading lessons on the side. Susan H.'s love for farming and her genius with economic figures has made her successful as a State Farm Insurance salesman. Don R. has pursued his dream and found a career as NFO chairman at the end of his rainbow.

I also found out that it was some of my old classmates that were responsible for putting the zing into Highland's social whirl. Dan McG. and Martin H., remembering how they enjoyed raising a little Cain on the highways, have become joint owners of the Highland dragstrip with the teenager's interest at heart. I wasn't at all surprised to hear that Vivian S. at the age of 33 was still swinging her hips as the go-go girl at Highland's hottest discotheque. It was Lois W. and Judy W. who became famous as designers for the clothes of the discotheque goers.

Mary's lunch hour ended and I had to catch a bus to Madison where I'd board a plane for N.Y. I had just seated myself on the bus when someone tapped me on the shoulder. I turned to find my former classmate, Peggy K. From our eager conversation, I discovered that she was my fellow competitor as star reporter for the Boston Courier. She stated that she had been conversing with some of our classmates. Sharon K. and Marlene K. are now very happy with their work in the Peace Corps where they are stationed in S. America. They share a straw hut together along the Amazon River. The famous Billie L. extended her musical abilities and has attained top billing at the Metropolitan Opera. Marilyn K. also works for the Metropolitan as her private accompanist and part-time usherette. Shirley I. had taken a Mediterranean cruise upon which she met and fell in love with the grand duke of Grastark. Her delusions of marrying into money burst like a bubble and she's now just a baby-sitting mother of 13 meddlesome brats. Russell J.'s garrulous tongue helped him talk his way into a threesome with 2 famous news commentators. His show is now called the Huntly, Brinkly, & Jenkly Report. Suddenly, in the midst of our reminiscing, we were interrupted by the deafening roar of a band of motorcyclists, whom Peggy instantly recognized as Ann Lucas and her "Hell's Angels". She told me that she was working on a follow-up of the story on how Anne successfully sidetracks the faithful chase of state patrolman, Bob McCarthy.

As we neared Madison, I bid my farewells and best wishes to Peggy and readied myself for the trainride home. And now the copy desk is waiting, so I'll leave you dear readers with these fond memories of my recent visit.

The Cardinals of 65-66 were the coaches' choice to win a well-balanced Blackhawk League. With eight returning lettermen and good size paving the way, Highland mowed down its first three opponents: Belmont 60-52, Cassville 45-38, and Hazel Green 94-46. Then a loss was suffered on Bloomington's court as the fired up Bluejays upset the Cardinals 65-59. Following a convincing win over Gratiot, Highland met defeat on the opposition's court again--this time to Benton 73-72 in an overtime. Closing out the 65 schedule was a 75-53 victory over the Chieftains at Potosi. At near mid-season, Bloomington leads the loop sporting a 5-1 mark but is followed closely by Highland and Cassville at 5-2 and Belmont at 4-2. The Cardinals are eager for the second half of the season and hope to bring home the league championship.

World News—1965

1 Humanitarian Dies—Dr. Albert Schweitzer died in September at Lambarene, his primitive hospital at the African jungle outpost of Gabon. The famed physician, who reached his 90th birthday in January, worked most of his life to relieve the suffering of jungle natives.

2 Queen Speaks—Queen Elizabeth II dedicated the John F. Kennedy memorial at Runnymede, England on May 14. Mrs. Kennedy is seated to the left and Prince Philip to the right of the queen. Carolyn Kennedy is seated between the queen and her mother, and Sen. Robert Kennedy stands behind Mrs. Kennedy.

3 Miss Universe—The reigning queen of beauty in the universe during the year was a representative from Thailand.

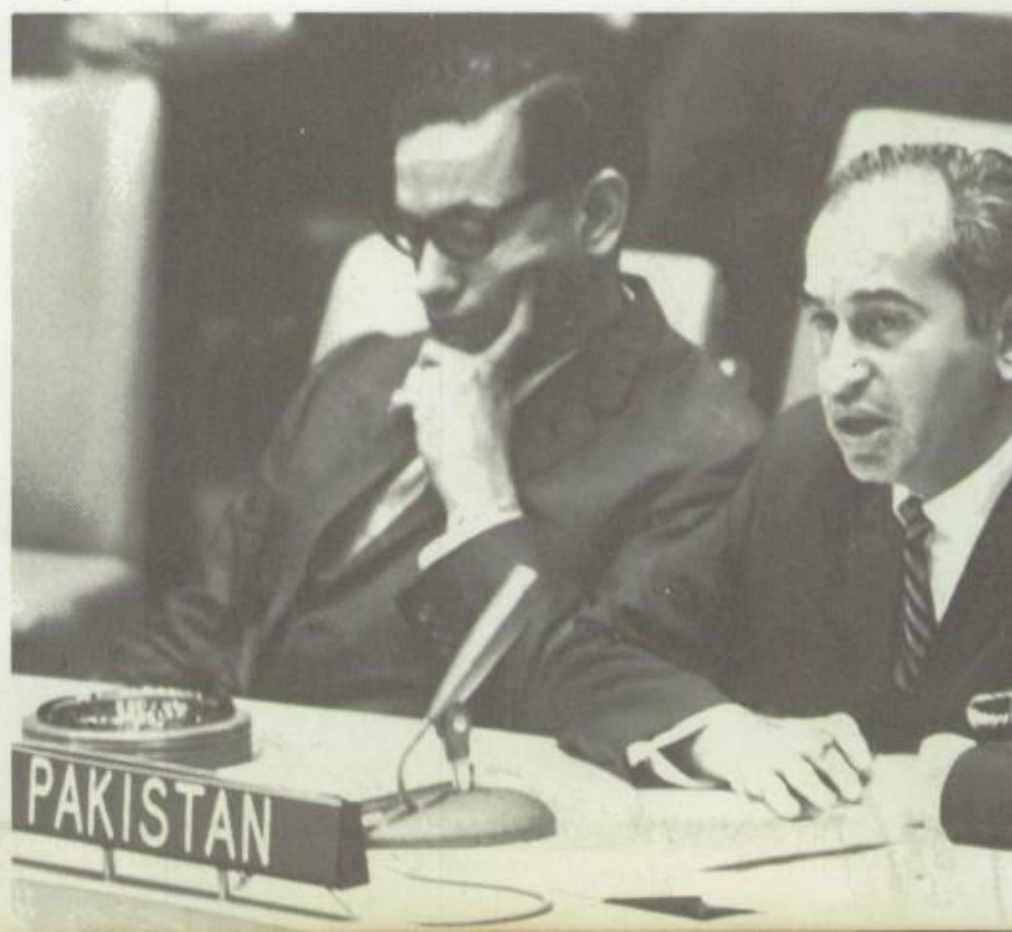

4 Bosch Returns—Former Dominican Republic President Juan Bosch was vehement in his address at a rally September 25, shortly after his return to Santo Domingo.

5 Wins in Run-Off—Charles deGaulle polled 55.2 per cent of the vote in a run-off election against Francois Mitterrand on December 19. The vote gave DeGaulle the French presidency for another 7 years, but the strength of the Socialist-Communist candidate corroded the popularity of the 71-year-old president.

6 Agrees to Cease-Fire—Pakistani Foreign Minister Zulfikar Bhutto (right) agreed in the U.N. Security Council on September 22 to accept the Council's cease-fire order in the undeclared war between Pakistan and India. Pakistan's announcement came after India had agreed to the order.

7 Abortive Coup Fails—Indonesian President Sukarno was toppled from power for a brief 20 hours last fall. He gestured at a cabinet meeting on October 6 during his first public appearance after the coup, which seriously shook his one-man rule.

8 Soviet Winner—Russian author Mikhail Sholokhov was vacationing in the Ural region on October 18 when he heard he had been awarded the 1965 Nobel Prize for Literature. The December award ceremony was held in Stockholm.

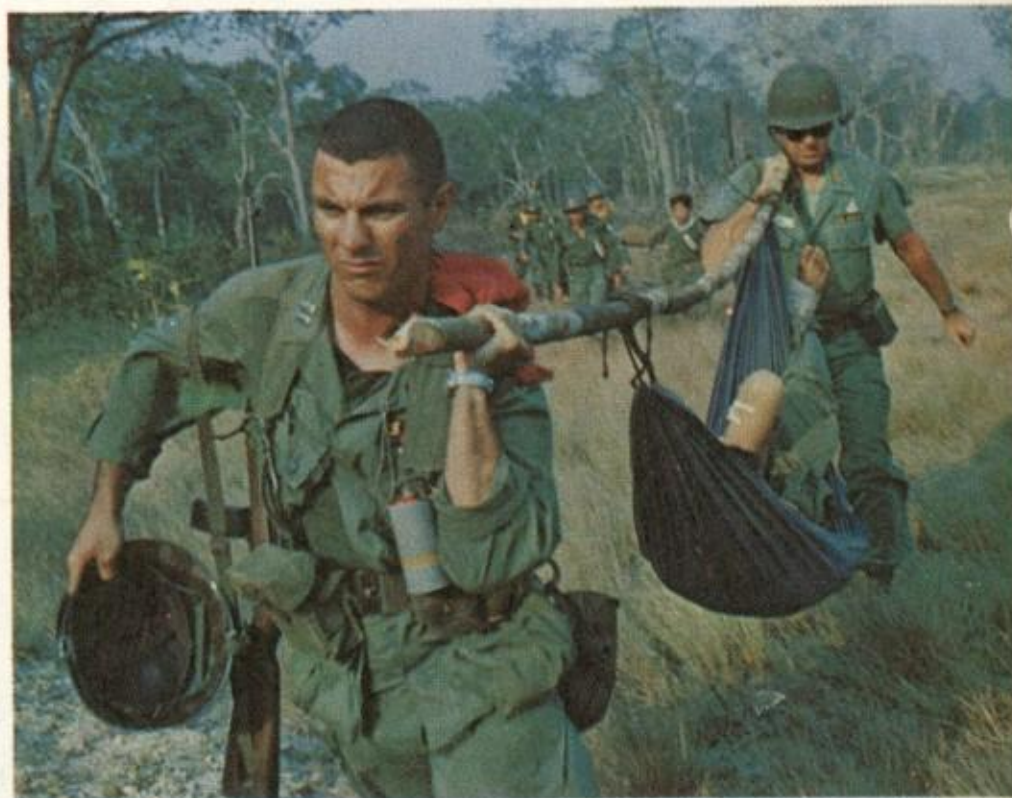

9 Return to Desolation—Hundreds of families returned to the wreckage of their homes, destroyed by eruption of Taal volcano, south of Manila, on September 28. Volcanic ash covered a six-mile-square area. The death toll was estimated at 500.

10 Price of War—The number of casualties increased as the U.S. stepped up its military action in Vietnam. American advisors took part in many helicopter missions, carrying wounded soldiers, both Vietnamese and American, to copters on makeshift litters for evacuation to Saigon.

11 Reason to Celebrate—Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany waved to a cheering crowd in Bonn after his Christian Democrats surged to victory in the September 19 parliamentary elections. Mayor Willy Brandt's Social Democrats suffered defeat in the voting.

12 Colonial Rule Shaken—Rhodesian Premier Ian Smith broadcast a proclamation of sovereign independence for Rhodesia on November 11. The split from Britain was made in an attempt to insure a white minority rule of the African colony. It was the first such move against Britain since the American colonies broke away in 1776. Britain retaliated swiftly and took the problem to the U.N. Security Council, which asked all nations to enforce an oil embargo against the African colony.
